

EBW IN THE MEDIA FOCUS

23 March 2023 – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

European Bridal Week announces media partnership with FashionUnited

The organisers of European Bridal Week are pleased to add another Media Friend to the list of publishing houses, supporting northern Europe's most important show for the bridal industry. With FashionUnited, EBW is partnering with an independent B2B platform that collects, creates, and communicates content relevant to the industry.

As one of fashion's most trusted global network for over 20 years, FashionUnited connects over one million fashion professionals, and provides a competitive recruitment advantage for the world's leading brands through storytelling and branding.

Established in over 30 countries and 10 languages, FashionUnited optimises the industry's way of working - making it more efficient and transparent. Trade news, marketplaces, job boards, directories and data are FashionUnited's core business. News stories on relevant developments and happenings in the fashion industry are published daily on FashionUnited news. The articles are produced by a team of locally based contributors, as well as international editors located in the Amsterdam HQ.
